Short Title:	Luo v. People of California

Dear Appellant/Counsel

The Clerk's Office of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit has received a copy of your notice of appeal and/or request for a certificate of appealability.

No briefing schedule will be set until this court and/or the district court determines whether a certificate of appealability (COA) should issue.

Absent an emergency, all subsequent filings in this matter will be stayed pending a determination on the certificate of appealability.

All subsequent letters and requests for information regarding this matter will be added to your file to be considered at the same time the cause is brought before the court.

The U.S. Court of Appeals docket number shown above has been assigned to this case. You must indicate this Court of Appeals docket number whenever you communicate with this court regarding this case. Motions filed along with the notice of appeal in the district court are not automatically transferred to this court for filing. Any motions seeking relief from this court must be separately filed in this court's docket.

You must file a Disclosure Statement (Form 34) within 14 days of this notice if your case: (1) involves a non-governmental corporation, association, joint venture, partnership, limited liability company, or similar entity; (2) is a bankruptcy case; (3) is a criminal case involving an organizational victim; or (4) involves review of state court proceedings. See Ninth Circuit Rule 26-1.1.
